Blood and truth trophy guide

Posted 03 January 2021 - 04:59 AM Straight shooter You've made 60% of your decisions as your analytical self Throughout the game, there are five (sometimes six; see note below) instances where you'll need to make major choices - these choices are indicated by blue and yellow outlined pictures. For this trophy, you'll need to make sure at least four (five) of the five (six) choices are the blue-outlined ones.NOTE. Depending on how you handle your conversation with Joan at Nick's fishing shack, you may be presented with a major choice. Just make sure to stay consistent with whatever you've chosen during your run so far. I've marked the optional major choice in parentheses. I can confirm that missing this choice with Joan will not void any of the decision trophies, as I unlocked Straight shooter without encountering that choice; I just made sure all of my choices in the game were analytical (blue). In chapter order, here are all of the analytical choices:Cold Feet - Promise to look into itEnter Basswood - Hide itBlood and Ink - Leave right awayBroken Home - Refuse ((To Catch a Fish - Tell Joan about Nick))Reflection - Choose the Mind Palace In addition to these major choices, there are some minor dialogue ones that can happen throughout the game - you wouldn't even know they were analytical/social choices unless you checked the stats menu after clearing a chapter. They factor in a bit, but you really want to focus on these major choices and not really worry about the minor ones. Manners make the man You've made 60% of your decisions as your social self See Straight shooter, but instead, make sure four (five) of your five (six) choices are the yellow-outlined ones. In chapter order, here are all of the social choices:Cold Feet - Keep her out of itEnter Basswood - Tell herBlood and Ink - Call the copsBroken Home - Promise ((To Catch a Fish - Call Kathy))Reflection - Choose Him Master negotiator You kept Anna alive by putting yourself in your opponent's shoes See No stone unturned. Presence of mind You kept Anna alive by outsmarting your opponent See No stone unturned. A foot in the door Find your way out of the infinite hallway without help Chapter: Wake Up! (Hotel Room) After cleaning his face and finding the shirt in the bathtub, Sam will be drawn into a hallucination. He will automatically run, but you can control his left and right movements. There will be a bunch of doors popping up in front of him - you only want to run through the doors with the white words. In order: Steady Yourself / Take Control / Focus After that, you'll end up in a new room. Interact with the man on the left to unlock this trophy. Waka waka Play an old favorite Chapter: Gumshoe (Coal Miner's Haven) The Pacman arcade machine is located in the Coal Miner's Haven bar. You cannot play it the first time you're in the bar (during the wake) but you can during your second visit, when you're looking for clues. Play the game for about 10-15 seconds, then back out of the game to unlock the trophy. Super sleuth Reconstruct Dennis' murder without help Chapter: Blood and Ink (Basswood Jungle) Inside the Basswood Jungle newspaper office, you'll find Dennis in one of the cubicles, and will need to reconstruct the series of events that happened. First, you'll need to go through a few rounds of a scene where a bunch of Dennis are walking towards you, and you'll need to scan looking for Him (he'll be brighter, and waving and calling out to you) and focus on him. It's okay if you mess this part up. To unlock this trophy, you'll need to focus on various things in the scene in the correct order: Dennis' Injury (chest) / Exit Wound (back) / Bullet Impact (above the blood splatters) / Holster (on the desk, left of Dennis) / Dennis' Gun (in the shooter's hand) / Traces of Blood (under Dennis' outstretched hand - make sure you don't choose the pool of blood!) / Dennis' Corpse. The trophy will unlock once the reconstruction plays out.Smooth talker Talk to Anna without asking for advice Chapter: Broken Home (Anna's House) To start the conversation with Anna, you'll first need to get her a drink from one of the kitchen cabinets, then you'll need to fix the music area in the living room and open the blinds on the hallway door (you may also need to rehang the picture in the hallway; I did it but that may not be necessary). Once you've done these things, go back to Anna and talk to her. This is actually a very easy trophy to unlock. Say whatever you want during the conversation; just don't ask Him for advice. So just avoid pressing Triangle for the entire conversation. Depending on what you say, Him might chime in anyway, but as long as you haven't pressed Triangle, you're good to go.Code breaker Crack the code on Nick's fishing bag on your first try Chapter: To Catch a Fish (Nick's Fishing Shack) Inside the shack is a locker. Interact with it, then walk over to the hanging bass on the wall next to the pictures and search it for the key. Unlock the locker and look at and read the note taped inside. Back out of the locker when you can (you need to interact with the calendar and the journal article at the very least), Look at the fishing rods on the wall. Inspect the pictures on the wall and look at the drawing with the caterpillar on it. Grab the fishing bag from under the bed and enter the combination: Right / Down / Left / Right / Up.
