Mojang assisted with the development of the game. The first five episodes were released between October 2015 through March 2016, and an additional three episodes were released as downloadable content in mid-2016. A second season consisting of five episodes was released from July through December 2017. The game follows the same episodic format as other Telltale Games titles, such as The Walking Dead, The Wolf Among Us, Tales from the Borderlands, and Game of Thrones. The story revolves around a player-created character named Jesse, originally an everyman, who later becomes a hero together with his friends. During the first four episodes, Jesse and their friends attempt to reassemble an old group of heroes known as the Order of the Stone to save the Overworld from the destructive Wither Storm. The rest of the first season follows Jesse and their friends, now the new Order of the Stone, on a new adventure after discovering a powerful artifact. In the second season, Jesse faces the powerful Admin. The game is available for Microsoft Windows, macOS, PlayStation 3, PlayStation 4, Wii U, Nintendo Switch, Xbox 360, Xbox One, Android, iOS, Apple TV, and Netflix. A retail version was released in December 2016,[14] However, both the first and second seasons are no longer available for download due to the closure of Telltale Games in late 2018. Gameplay Minecraft: Story Mode is an episodic interactive comedy-drama point-and-click graphic adventure video game. It was released as a number of episodes similar to Telltale Games' other games. Players can collect items, solve puzzles, and talk to non-player characters through conversation trees to learn about the story and determine what to do next. Decisions that the player makes affect events in both the current episode and later episodes.[15] However, Minecraft: Story Mode's intended to be a family-friendly title, unlike Telltale's previous games, which tend to carry more mature or emotional overtones (including the death of major characters). As such, the decisions are intended to be pivotal and emotional but not to involve mature imagery or themes.[15] Elements of crafting and building were included in the gameplay which are central to Minecraft.[15][16] The game includes combat and other action sequences, carried out through both quick time events and more arcade-like controls, such as steering around debris on a road.[16][17] Synopsis Setting Minecraft: Story Mode takes place in an interpretation of the world of Minecraft, known as the "Overworld", where the game is the extent of the characters' universe, and the characters are unaware that they are in a game.[18] The main character, Jesse, is an inexperienced resident of said universe who sets out on a journey with their friends within the world of Minecraft to find The Order of the Stone (Gabriel the Warrior, Ellegard the Redstone Engineer, Magnus the Rogue, Soren the Architect and Ivor the Potion Brewer and Enchanter), five legendary adventurers who saved the Minecraft world.[19] The game includes settings that are normally difficult to access from within Minecraft, including the Nether and The End.[19] Characters The player can customize Jesse, including choice of gender and skin tone. Jesse is voiced by Patton Oswalt if male and by Catherine Taber and by Catherine Taber if female.[20] Other main characters within the Minecraft: Story Mode world include Jesse's friends Petra (voiced by Ashley Johnson),[16] Axel (Brian Posehn), Olivia (Martha Plimpton), Lukas (Scott Porter), and Jesse's pet pig, Reuben (Dee Bradley Baker). The first season features several characters in supporting roles, including the Order of the Stone—Gabriel (Dave Fennoy), Magnus (Corey Feldman), Ellegard (Grey Griffin), Soren (John Hodgman) and Ivor (Paul Reubens), the latter of whom becomes a main character from episode five onwards—former Ocelot member and Blazing Rods leader Aiden (Matthew Mercer), the ruler of Sky City, the Founder (Melissa Hutchison), Milo (Jim Meskimen), the leader of an underground building club, Minecraft YouTubers CaptainSparklez, DanDM, LDShadowlady, Stampy Cat and Stacy Plays (all played by themselves), Torque Dawg (Adam Harrington), Cassie Rose/The White Pumpkin (Ashly Burch), the super-computer PAMA (Jason 'Jip' Topolski), its creator and former Old Builder Harper (Vytte Nicole Brown), the warrior Emily (Audrey Wasilewski), and the Old Builders—Hadrian (Jim Cummings), Mevia (Karl Wahlgren) and Otto (Jamie Alcroft). There are also several background characters, such as Maya, Ivy and a Fangirl (GK Bowes), Owen (Owen Hill), Gill (Phil LaMarr), an EnderCon Usher named Reuben (also Jason 'Jip' Topolski), a Fanboy (Billy West), Lydia (Lydia Winters), and the EnderCon Building Competition Announcer (Erin Yvette). Stauffer said that the human characters as a whole represent the different types of gamers who play Minecraft.[19] Billy West narrates the first four episodes of the story.[21][22] [23] Plot This article's plot summary may be too long or excessively detailed. Certain decisions made by the player will alter details of specific events. Season 1 (2015–16) A long time ago, the Order of the Stone—Gabriel the Warrior, Ellegard the Redstone Engineer, Magnus the Rogue, and Soren the Architect—travelled to the End and defeated the Ender Dragon, becoming well-known heroes. In the present-day, everyman Jesse, their friends Axel and Olivia, and pet pig Reuben, are preparing for the EnderCon building competition. The group's rivals, the Ocelots, attempt to sabotage their build, causing Reuben to flee. Jesse is attacked rescuing him but is saved by an acquaintance, Petra, who convinces Jesse to help her sell a Wither skull at EnderCon. The buyer, Ivor, tricks them and escapes with the skull. Jesse and their friends pursue him to his underground laboratory and discover that Ivor planned to attack Gabriel at EnderCon with a Wither, contain a Command Block, and destroy the group fail to stop Ivor from unleashing the Wither, which soon breaks free from Ivor's control and evolves into a "Wither Storm" which consumes everything in its path. Jesse, their friends, and Ocelot leader Lukas escape through a Nether portal at Gabriel's fortress. Gabriel gives Jesse an amulet and tells them to find the other members of the Order of the Stone. Jesse rescues either Gabriel or Petra from the Wither Storm before being knocked through the portal. Jesse and company escape the Nether and arrive at the Order's old temple, where they discover that Ivor was a member of the Order as the potions expert. Using the amulet to locate the other members, the group recruit Ellegard and Magnus and are reunited with Gabriel/Petra (whoever Jesse rescued) before heading to Soren's secret lab in hopes that his invention, the Formidi-Bomb, can destroy the Wither Storm. The group travel to the End and convince Soren to help before returning to the Overworld. Despite Jesse placing the "F-Bomb" into the Wither Storm's chest to destroy its Command Block, the Block remains intact and either Ellegard or Magnus is killed, allowing the Wither Storm to regenerate and triple in size. The group, joined by an amnesiac Gabriel/Petra (who was released from the Wither Storm alongside the other consumed people) make their escape. Attempting to make amends, Ivor takes the group to his lab in the Far Lands to obtain a weapon capable of destroying the Command Block. There, Jesse discovers that Soren used a Command Block to wipe the Ender Dragon from existence and cheat the Order to glory, with Ivor having intended to use the Wither Storm to reveal the Order's true nature. Jesse builds the enchanted weapon and makes their way up to face the Wither Storm, aided by their friends and Soren's Endermen. Jesse is ultimately able to destroy the Command Block, though Reuben is killed in the process. Later, as the world and everyone affected by the Wither Storm returns to normal, Jesse and their friends are hailed as heroes and become "The New Order of the Stone". Three months later, the Order investigate an ancient jungle temple, finding an enchanted Flint and Steel. They are accosted by the "Blaze Rods," the reformed Ocelots led by Aiden, who is bitter towards their newfound fame. Ivor reveals that the Flint and Steel is a product of an ancient group of master builders known as the "Old Builders", and supposedly the key to the "Eversource", the Builders' unlimited supply of building material. Jesse, Ivor, Lukas, and Petra return to the temple and use the Flint and Steel to open a portal before it is stolen by the Blaze Rods. Pursuing them, Jesse and friends find themselves in Sky City, a floating kingdom where building is forbidden. The group eventually finds the Eversource—a chicken that lays spawn eggs—but Aiden steals it and uses it to spawn hostile mobs. Jesse defeats Aiden and evacuates the city's citizens to an overworld hideout beneath Sky City as the Blaze Rods are arrested. Jesse's group retrieve the Flint and Steel and try to return home through another portal, but find themselves in a portal-filled corridor. While travelling between them in search for a way home, they arrive in a graveyard with an invitation to a supposed party at a nearby mansion. At the mansion, Jesse and the others meet CaptainSparklez, DanTDM, LDShadowLady/Lizzie, Stampy Cat, Stacy Plays, TorqueDawg and Cassie Rose. TorqueDawg and CaptainSparklez are killed with traps constructed by the "White Pumpkin," a mysterious individual who desires the Flint and Steel. Jesse leads an investigation and eventually discovers that the culprit is Cassie, who seeks the Flint and Steel to leave to another world. Cassie is ultimately defeated and trapped, and Jesse and their friends return to the portal corridor. The next portal takes the group to a desert world ruled by the super-computer PAMA, who has enslaved the local population. After PAMA takes control of Lukas and Petra, Jesse and Ivor escape aided by Harper, PAMA's creator, who reveals herself as an Old Builder. Harper takes them to her lab to retrieve something to help stop PAMA, where Jesse manages to free either Lukas or Petra before Harper is captured. Harper directs Jesse to PAMA's power source, the Redstone Heart, which Jesse destroys to deactivate PAMA and free everyone enslaved by it. Back at the portal corridor, Harper reveals a hidden stairway to the other Old Builders' world, where an item called the Portal Atlas can help Jesse's group return home. However, the Old Builders—Hadrian, Mevia, and Otto—force Jesse to participate in a series of games in exchange for the Atlas and their friends' freedom. Despite Hadrian and Mevia's attempts to rig the games against Jesse's favour, Jesse stages a rebellion against the Builders and defeats Hadrian and Otto, who return to their respective homes. The New Order of the Stone return to their treasure room before noticing that Ivor has fled with both the Atlas and the Flint and Steel in search for a new adventure. Season 2 (2017) Several years after the events of the first season, Jesse is leading the city of Beacownton. Their intern, Radar, notifies Jesse of an upcoming adventure with Petra, and Founding Day, an annual celebration of Beacownton's founding. Jesse helps citizens prepare for Founding Day before meeting Petra in the mines and helping her apprehend a mystery creature, a llama named Lluna. Jesse and Petra stumble onto an underground chamber; perched atop is a gauntlet, which clamps onto Jesse's hand. The sand pyramid falls apart to reveal a bottomless pit (dubbed a "heckmouth") underneath. Jesse and Petra escape to the surface and depart to Champion City to return Lluna to her owner, Stella, the leader of Champion City whom considers Jesse to be her lifelong rival. Petra seeks out Jack, a legendary adventurer whom she believes can help Jesse remove the gauntlet and the heckmouth. Jack reveals that the gauntlet is tracked to a dangerous Ocean Monument, and that an ancient magic block called the "Structure Block" is the key to closing the pit. Jesse convinces Jack to take them and Petra to the monument, which Jack reveals was supposedly created by "The Admin", a being of infinite power that allegedly created the world. Alongside Jack's friend, Nurm, the four complete various tasks, one of which frees Vos, an adventurer and friend of Jack who was presumed killed. At the center of the monument, the Admin appears and attempts to kill Jesse. Jesse and friends successfully close the pit and escape back to Beacownton, where the Admin reappears assuming the form of a prismarine statue, and uses a giant clock to change the time from day to night. After Jesse defeats the statue, the Admin returns in the form of a snowman and challenges Jesse's group to reclaim the clock in his ice palace. Jesse, Jack, Lukas, Petra, Radar, and Vos head toward the ice palace, later joined by Stella and Lluna. The group overcome the Admin's challenges and the clock is destroyed by either Jack or Petra, turning the world back to normal time. However, Vos is revealed to have been an impersonation of the Admin, who teleports whom ever destroyed the clock away as his power partner and sends Jesse to the "Sunshine Institute", an obsidian maze where the Admin imprisons people he detests. After an unsuccessful escape attempt and becoming either an "associate" or prisoner of the institute, Jesse accompanies Radar to the "Mush Room," where guests are forced to fight over mushrooms to survive, and resolves with their friends to find "Prisoner X", a famed escape artist who apparently knows the way out of the maze. Jesse opens X's cell before the Admin appears and forces Jesse to combat whoever destroyed the clock. The two cooperate to attack the Admin, who resutantly impersonates Jesse to earn the trust of the inhabitants of Beacownton and leaves with Stella. Jesse convinces Prisoner X, named Xara, to help, and learns that Xara was formerly an Admin alongside a third Admin named Fred, and fought the current Admin - named Romeo - for control of the world. Fred was killed, and Xara was stripped of her powers and imprisoned in the Sunshine Institute. Xara leads the group to an area into the bedrock, named the "Underneath", to escape the institute. She shows them a portal from her homework to the surface that allowed the Admins to visit each other, which she agrees to repower while Jesse heads to "Fred's Keep", where Fred kept a object supposedly capable of removing Romeo's powers. Jesse is assisted by the citizens of Fred's Keep in exchange for helping the society to escape to above the bedrock, and is given the Order's amulet by Ivor to power Xara's portal. Jesse and Petra enter the Admin's cabin and find a journal left by Fred, detailing that Romeo's desire to keep the Admins together resulted in tension and his betrayal, along with a password to help defeat Romeo; Petra also reveals to Jesse her intention of wanting to leave Beacownton to go adventuring. The friends return to the Oasis and find that Xara has fixed the portal. However, fireworks attract a giant Enderman, and Jesse is forced to leave behind either Radar or the citizens of Fred's Keep to distract it. The group end up outside the Old Order of the Stone's temple and see the Admin-ruled Beacownton, with Romeo having set up a dictatorship based in a giant floating tower above town. The group deduces that this tower contains the "Primary Terminal" mentioned in Fred's diary, and Jesse plans to sneak themselves, Jack, and Petra up to the tower and disable the Admin's power source. However, the tower is guarded by the "Blaze Rods", and the group is forced to escape. The friends return to the Oasis and find that Xara has fixed the portal. However, fireworks attract a giant Enderman, and Jesse is forced to leave behind either Radar or the citizens of Fred's Keep to distract it. The group end up outside the Old Order of the Stone's temple and see the Admin-ruled Beacownton, with Romeo having set up a dictatorship based in a giant floating tower above town. The group deduces that this tower contains the "Primary Terminal" mentioned in Fred's diary, and Jesse plans to sneak themselves, Jack, and Petra up to the tower and disable the Admin's power source.
